One-year term to expire in 2019

Alicia Booth, Alternate Graduate Student Director
One-year term to expire in 2019

Nathan Budke, Alternate Undergraduate Student Director
One-year term to expire in 2019
Ashley Vu, Graduate Student Director
Ashley Vu is from San Jose, California and has been a Coug since the Fall of 2012. She is in her 3rd year as a PhD student in Mechanical Engineering. Ashley is a recent Cougar alum, graduating with her BS in Mechanical Engineering in 2016 and MS in Materials Science and Engineering in 2018. Ashley has served on the Board for three years as an undergraduate director and two years as a graduate director. In her spare time, Ashley loves to sew and play the piano. She is excited and honored to continue to serve the Cougar community as a Board member.

Victory Jones, Undergraduate Student Director
Victory is an undergraduate in the College of Arts and Science double majoring in Philosophy Pre-Law and Sociology. Originally from Pullman, she has been very involved in the Pullman community throughout her life and continues this involvement while attending Washington State University. As an active member on campus, Victory volunteers with the Center for Civic Engagement frequently and throughout her sorority, Pi Beta Phi, she serves as the philanthropy committee chair, as well as on the Junior Panhellenic/IFC Council and shadows the Panhellenic Vice President of Member Education! After attending Washington State for four years, Victory plans on going to Law School and continuing her passion of helping people. Victory is very honored to be able to continue working with the Pullman community and giving back through the Students Book Corporation.

Anna Budke, Undergraduate Student Director
Anna is an undergraduate student from Spokane, Washington who is in the Carson College of Business, working towards a degree in accounting, with a minor in economics. Her career goals include earning her Masters in accounting before becoming a Certified Public Accountant. She is also involved in Alpha Kappa Psi, a professional business fraternity, where she has opportunities including being the Design and Apparel Chair and a member of the Case Competition team that won first place at the 2017 Principled Business Leadership Institute in San Fransisco, California. In her spare time Anna enjoys hiking, rock climbing, and playing the ukulele. Anna joined the board as a way to serve her fellow Cougs and is excited to influence positive change for the students of Washington State as a part of the Students Book Corporation Board of Directors.
Alicia Booth, Alternate Graduate Student Director
Alicia Booth is from Spokane, WA and currently working on her Master’s degree in Communication. She graduated from Carroll College in 2014 with her Bachelor’s in Business Administration concentrating in Marketing, Management, and International Business. In her free time, she enjoys watching football, singing in the church choir, and hiking around the Palouse. As she nears the end of her program, she is excited to serve on the Board and hopes to leave a lasting impact at WSU which will create an amazing experience for future Cougs!

Nathan Budke, Alternate Undergraduate Student Director
Nathan is an undergraduate student in the Honors College and the Carson College of Business working toward a degree in accounting with a minor in economics. He is from Spokane, Washington and plans on earning a master’s in accounting and becoming a Certified Public Accountant after finishing his undergraduate education. He is a member of the Washington State University Rowing Team, where he rows as a starboard oarsman on the novice team. In his spare time Nathan enjoys doing calligraphy, hiking, and fishing. Nathan looks forward to serving on the board to help hear and address the needs of his fellow Cougs and is excited to influence positive changes for the students of Washington State as a part of the Students Book Corporation Board of Directors.
