The Board of Regents of Washington State University met pursuant to call in Open Meeting at 8:00 a.m., on Friday, October 4, 2013 in the Firstenburg Student Commons Building, Room 101-103, Vancouver, Washington.

Present: Regent Connie Niva, Chair; Regents, Ted Baseler, T. Ryan Durkan, Francois Forgette, Laura Jennings, Lindsey Schaffer, Ron Sims (via phone) and Michael Worthy; President Elson S. Floyd, and Interim Provost and Executive Vice President Daniel J. Bernardo.

1. Report from the Chair of the Board of Regents. Regent Niva welcomed everyone to the meeting. She said that since the last Regents’ Meeting, the Regents have participated in a variety of WSU activities including Wine Science Groundbreaking at WSU Tri-Cities; the WSU Foundation annual meeting and recognition gala and several other events surrounding WSU week in Seattle.

2. Report from the President of the University. President Floyd thanked the Board for the opportunity to report. He thanked Chancellor Netzhammer for hosting the Board on the Vancouver Campus and in his home for dinner. He said he looks forward to continued conversations with him on the future role of WSU Vancouver.

President Floyd also recognized the student leadership and thanked them for sharing their educational experiences with the Regents over lunch. He said that WSU has amazing students and he is in awe with the way they embrace WSU and the academic experience.

President Floyd started off by highlighting some of the capital projects occurring across the WSU system. Those projects included the following:

—dedications in the installment of two art pieces on the Vancouver Campus
—groundbreaking of the new Wine Science Center in the Tri-Cities
—dedication of the new Northside Residence Hall on the Pullman Campus
—rebranding of Palouse Ridge Golf Course on the Pullman campus
—Marriott Residence Inn has broken ground east of the Student Recreation Center on the Pullman campus
—Pharmaceutical and Biomedical Sciences Building is nearing completion on the Spokane campus
—development of WSU North Puget Sound at Everett
President Floyd said that he has been spending quite a bit of time in conversation with legislatures about WSU’s budget for the coming years and the priorities associated with WSU.

Lastly, President Floyd reported that it has been a long time since faculty and staff have had salary increases. He said effective January 1, WSU will provide a 4 percent across the board increase for Administrative Professional employees throughout the WSU system. He said faculty will also receive 4 percent increase and he has set aside approximately $2 million to provide additional compensation based on meritorious service to the University.

3. Minutes. It was moved and seconded that the Board of Regents approve the minutes of the September 6, 2013, Board of Regents Meeting. Carried.

4. Reports from University Groups. Representative from each of the university groups—Faculty Senate, Administrative and Professional Advisory Council, Associated Students of Washington State University, the Associated Students of Washington State University Spokane, the Graduate and Professional Student Association, Foundation Board of Governors, and the WSU Alumni Association—reviewed their reports as submitted. (Individual written reports may be found online at the Board of Regents website or requested from the President’s Office.)

5. Focused Discussion – WSU Vancouver. Chancellor Netzhammer provided an overview of WSU Vancouver in the areas of enrollment, education, research, giving, and community and planning. He also introduced the new Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, Dr. Renny Christopher. Chancellor Netzhammer also introduced three students to the Board and asked them to talk about their experiences at WSU Vancouver. The three students were Mr. Phil Uribe, Mr. Philip Hawkins and Ms. Shave Winters.

6. Executive Committee. Regent Niva reported that committee discussed the recommendation to name the new Visitor Center and is ready to bring forward to the Board for approval.

The Board took action on the following:

WSU Pullman, Facilities Names Recommendation. It was moved and seconded that the Board of Regents approve the naming of the Visitor Center on WSU Pullman Campus, the Brelsford WSU Visitor Center. Carried.

7. External Affairs Committee Report. Regent Durkan reported that the committee had a brief meeting. She said that President Floyd provided the legislative update for Colleen Kerr who was ill and unable to report. She said that on the local level, the supplemental budget is the main focus of conversations. She also reported that on the federal level the shutdown has not affected WSU yet. She said if the shutdown continues to go on, that it could have some effect on WSU and that President Floyd will keep them informed.

Regent Durkan also reported that the committee discussed the future action pertaining to public records request regulations that are published in the Washington Administrative Code. She added that most regulations are housekeeping measures.

8. Academic and Student Affairs Committee Report. Regent Jennings reported that the committee reviewed the action items being brought before the Board regarding changes to the Faculty Manual. She added that all three actions have not changed since their discussion from their last meeting and all was already approved by the Faculty Senate.

Regent Jennings also reported that the committee heard from Paul Pitre, Special Assistant to the President, regarding the status of the Everett Campus and where WSU is in the process of taking over management of the University Center. She added as part of the Everett Campus update, Vice President Patterson and Associate Vice President Yang updated them on the $10 million legislative appropriation for design build and land purchase for a future building.

Lastly, Regent Jennings reported that the committee also reviewed three future actions items that will come before the Board at future meetings. She said the first future action involves the housing and dining rates for next year. She added that the usual policy will be followed by having a student committee formed to gather information and provide recommendations. She said that the Board will vote on the new housing and dining rates at their January meeting.

She said David Cillay, Vice President of the Global Campus, submitted constitution and bylaw changes for ASWSU Global. She said most of the changes are administrative in nature, changing language that still refers to Extension and also changes regarding the responsibilities of the President and the Vice President of ASWSU Global.

She said that last future action item they discussed is a WAC addition for WSU Vancouver to become a smoke and tobacco free campus.
